From the Archives: The Artful Impact of the UN Conference on Women

Join Emily Moore, archival assistant, in the Betty Boyd Dettre Library and Research Center to explore the legacies and art of three international festivals of women artists. Spanning 15 years and three continents (1980, 1985, and 1995, in Denmark, Kenya, and China, respectively), the festivals coincided with the UN Conference on Women, demonstrating the emergence of an international women's art network.

A Conversation with Pita Lopez: Reflections on Miss O'Keeffe

Join Pita Lopez and Katrina Latka of the Georgia O'Keeffe Museum for a conversation about Lopez's time spent with Georgia O'Keeffe. Lopez, who serves the museum as the projects director, Abiquiu Historic Properties, is a third-generation employee of Georgia O'Keeffe. Learn about the impact O'Keeffe had on her family in the village of Abiquiu in northern New Mexico and how Lopez shares O'Keeffe's legacy today.

→ 3:00pm Art Chat *Commons

In this special International Women's Day edition, join NMWA educators for an informal 45-minute art chat about selected artworks from NMWA's collection. You can even enjoy your favorite happy hour drink or snack during the sessions.
