What is CIVIC VOICES About?

CIVIC VOICES is a residents-led group focused on understanding and discussing the core principles of American government and the challenges it faces today. We explore how the American federal government was designed to balance power and prevent concentration, ensuring that it serves the community effectively without becoming oppressive. As political activity intensifies, CIVIC VOICES offers a chance for residents to engage in meaningful discussions and stay informed about the evolving political landscape.

Join us for a thought-provoking presentation by Arthur B. Spitzer on the current state of American politics and its impact on our lives.
